SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

On the morning of June 1, 1987, at the new Interplanetary Spaceport, the entire population of Jeffersonville, Indiana was anxiously awaiting the return of the J. O. S. Stellar Spacecraft, "Moonbeam." Exactly twenty-five years ago, astronauts Joe Beatty, Jim Goode, and Danny Cranmer took off from this spot, their destination being the moon. When the spacemen arrived, they were greeted by Indiana's first woman governor, Judy Barthold, Judge Jim Bottorff, Mayor Joe Winkler, and Representative Bill Winn.

After due ceremony, our three native sons set out to discover what their former classmates had accomplished during their absence. Glancing through a current newspaper, edited by John Greenwell, they noticed an article concerning a delegation of Don Asher, Bill Austin, Jerry Bishop, and Charles Branham which visited Senator Terry Capehart. Turning to the sports page, they read that Ronnie "Dok" Cain's Little League Team, the Jabbers, just won the Little World Series. Danny Smith won the heavyweight boxing title from Larry Hack. George Hartig finished second in the Grande Prix, thanks to his little Caravella. William Burns drove in the 500.

This information about former classmates was revealed in the ads. Carolyn Wilson owns a music supply store on Allison Lane. Marion Dale runs a Do-It-Yourself Barber Shop chain and Nadine Oliver is married to an up-and-coming grocer. Chuckles were provided by cartoons drawn by James Spears.

In the Society section they read about John Smith's recent marriage to a Cherokee Indian named "Pokey," and that Roberta Parido was recently elected President of the local Business and Professional Women's Organization. Twins Nancy and Judy Nolan celebrated at a double wedding anniversary party. Astronaut Cranmer noticed pictures of the grand opening of Joyce McDonough's Modeling Agency; affiliated with the agency is a Paris style beauty salon operated by Helen Smith, Mary Jean Stone, and Mary Ann Tribbey.

Listening to the radio station, owned by Sharon Badger, they heard disc jockey James McDonner play records by Leslie Kavanaugh, the new rock 'n roll sensation. Also on the top forty were songs by trio "Winkin', Blinken', and Nod", John Wilcoxson, Joe Blankenbaker, and Steve Northam, and duet Pat Turner and Ann Adams. On the newscast they heard that Bob Ezell had just received patent rights on Elasticized Bricks. Also in the news was a flash about firemen Frank Martin and William Snyder, who saved Carolyn Reardon's home from devastation. Of interest was a story about hometown author Nancy Boyd; she recently finished a sequel to "Gone With The Wind" in which the south wins the Civil War. Engineer Joe Richard revealed plans to construct an Eiffel Tower in Warder Park.

On their victory motorcade down Court Avenue, they passed Bonnie Wooten's drag strip, where she races Fury's. Mary Manka is Bonnie's head mechanic. Astronaut Goode pointed out the Ginny Pace Theater where Mike Edward's and Lennie Wilson's names were on the marquee. They heard that Sue Calloway designs all the costumes for the actors. They noticed Darwin Mitchell's Speedy TV Repair truck which is equipped with a radio dispatch unit. Side by side were Dennis Lawler's drug store, where Betty Neal and Eva Eringer clerk part-time, and Charlotte DeCourcy's dry goods store, which used to be Bacon's. Travel Posters advertising Margie Clegg, Carolyn Childers, and Carol Dreschel's Travel Bureau (which went broke because they lost their first tour) were displayed at the gas station run by Bob Schulz and Robert Stumler; both are experts at handling left-hand monkey wrenches.

The astronauts were feted at a banquet held at a restaurant owned by Richard Clark and Emma Kay Hammond. Waitresses Frances Brock, Dianne Grimes, and Karan Thompson served them a delicious meal prepared by chef Lee Polk. Homer Barnett revealed this interesting news to the eager listeners: Steve Pursell is Chief Custodian at the Fox; Sandy Hardison operates a Candid Camera at the Trolley Inn; Dan Worrall, Bob McIntosh, and Dave Hadley share a swingin' bachelor apartment and edit "Playboy" in their spare time.

Marvin Winburn informed Beatty that Joe Olson transferred back to Sellersburg, where he is now Mayor. Joyce Hamilton taught Beverly Hill the TWIST and they are now touring Asia demonstrating American arts. Carol Jackson, Jean and Jane Keeton operate a miniature golf course on land owned by Marcus Esarey who makes the golf balls. Becky Haas is a muscle bound bouncer at the Copacabana. Beck learned Judo from experts Patty Davis and Frances Holbrook.

Leroy Coffer, a delivery boy for the telegraph office, delivered numerous congratulations from some of the astronaut's old school chums, John Dunn, Myrtle Thurman, Joe Himmelheber, Jane Hutchings, Geneva Bradford, and Teena Robinson.

The astronauts sighted Carlos Napier who now teaches Mr. Brogan's Social Studies Classes. He told them about new teachers in the school system. Bill Sorg is the Principal of Jeffersonville High School, where Sheridan Long is the music director. Chemistry teacher Bill Halter is kept in aspirin by Librarian Marilyn Hash. Tom Rankin teaches math classes specializing in trigonometry.

Judy Wilcoxson, Nancy Spies, and Linda Walling are business instructors teaching the daughters of Patsy Squire, Judy Hayden, and Kathleen Kincaid how to look busy while doing absolutely nothing.

After the luncheon Carolyn Isgrigg drove the space travelers to their motel, which was run by Delores Harlan, and Carolyn Lauderdale. While Goode and Cranmer were resting, astronaut Beatty talked to Alice McKinney on the telephone. Alice told him that James Spence now lives in Alaska on a Radar tracking station. Jeannette Turk and Ruth Tugate, airline hostesses, both caught handsome pilots. Anna Towns teaches the third grade at Maple Elementary School. Jarvis Standley has a brand new tri-level home on Utica Pike. Judy Slone raises mink in her back yard. Pat Patterson is the parent of three—Patsy, Patrick, and little Patricia. After thanking Alice for calling, Joe went to the door where salesman Kenny McAfee was selling Charmin tissue at a penny a sheet. Kenny said that he had just returned from Atlantic City where he stayed at a luxury hotel owned by Mary Brooks, Susan Miller, and Ginny Helton. He said he often saw Becky Blake who is a traveling psychiatrist and her nurse, Barbara Shaffer. Another traveling salesman is Paul Kellogg who sells Post Toasties.

CHARMIN

Chef

Jim Goode decided to take a walk where he met sailors Robert Stum and Thomas Martin and Melvin Smith, who told Jim of other classmates who were with the armed forces. Hazel Craig is first mate on a Navy destroyer, keeping her hubby company. Sharon Rew Albert is stationed in Japan with her soldier husband. Carol Kennedy, married to an Army career officer is in Hawaii where she met Bobby Osborne, a beachcomber, and Joy Combs, who teaches surfboard riding.

Later the three space travelers decided to visit their old hangout, the Ranch House, presently being managed by Sheila Nance. There they saw Louis Myer, Jim Ennis, Lloyd Williams, and Richard Simpson in the same jeep they rode in while in high school. Also parked under the canopy was Steve Fagan in the bus he drives nonstop to Florida. While the astronauts were enjoying their "cokes", they talked to Sherry Allen and Pam Bruner who work for law partners Harold Garwood and John Leach.

Sherry told them that Bradford Brooks had recently discovered an astonishing error in a two century old logarithms table. They were glad to hear that James Hutchinson was a national chess champ, and that Bernie Brumley was a famous archaeologist.

Before returning to the motel they bought a magazine edited by Georgia Wallace. Modeling for a Breck ad was Barbara Vester. They read an interesting article about Sue Dierking, the first girl admitted to Annapolis. Many of the articles were illustrated by commercial artist Joyce Martin.

Back at the motel they were met by Police Chief Ronnie Kittenger and Officers David Bright and Wayne Bledsoe, and Roger Harshey, who were to escort them to the evening banquet. On the way to the banquet hall they passed Mary Lou Ballenger's farm, Bonnie Brogan's Stables, and Michele Payne's Dog Kennels, where she raises little Hans'. On Spring Street they noticed a Beauty Shop run by Suzanne Hensler, Joyce Grossman, Judy Gill, and Sandy Early. They also saw Shannon's Dairy now owned by Everett Deckard. He sells dairy products to all parts of the world; Red China and Russia are his best customers.

Local industrialists were honoring the astronauts by sponsoring the evening banquet. On hand to greet the spacemen as they arrived were Jerry Stoner, brick maker; Walter Adcock, owner of twelve railroads; and Barbara Burns, head of the Unguentine Company. Inside they met other old classmates Bill Sage, representative for Marhoefer. Seated at the table they saw Luceil May, Larry Knauer's secretary. Larry makes rat-coon coats. Also at the table was William Campbell who has advanced from tomato slicer to vice-president of the soup company. At opposite ends of the table were competitors Larry Pruitt and Ronald Schlossburg, who vie for the outer space fuel business in this area.

Jim Goode was elated to renew his acquaintance with Bob Cooper, who spent a fortune manufacturing guaranteed to strike bowling balls. (Too bad he forgot to put the finger holes in.) Ozzie Gibson and Ronnie Woodward were there demonstrating their latest invention, glasses that see not only frontwards, but backwards. Representing Cannon Towels was Jere Drye. They talked to Linda Leach, chief champagne taster for John McPherson's Champagne Company, Inc. They were pleased to learn from Pam Brown that she is a partner with Larry White, and Joseph Brown in the firm of Brown, White, Brown. Last to arrive were Eddie Snelling and Bob Bird, co-owners of the Mutt and Jeff Athletic Supply Company.

After the meal, Laura Watson introduced the guest speaker, Penny Prentice, Director of the Peace Corps. She mentioned that Ruth Wilkerson and Linda Williams and Jerry Heacock are presently laboring to improve living standards in Indonesia. A second speaker, Emmalee Gottbrath, president of the American Medical Association, told of former classmates engaged in health services. Nurses at Clark County Memorial Hospital are Sue Nesbitt, Ella Jo Meadors, and Sue Bridgewater. Nursing at Children's Hospital is Terisha Johnson.

Linda Jo Carter, a drug manufacturer, put the "liver" back in the "Little Pills". On the research end of medicine is Charlie Blau, who developed a serum that destroyed cancer in humans. It's a shame that it destroyed people, too! Judy Young is also in medicine; she operates an old peoples' home.

Petsy Lynch and Mary Lynne Hosea drove the astronauts back to their motel. On the way, they learned more about old classmates. Arthur Bryant designed a nuclear powered dishwasher. Lola Wright dislocated her back while doing the twist the wrong way. Ronnie Frazier and Ronnie Jenkins are running a floating crap game. Interior decorator Barbara Emly recently finished re-decorating the White House. James Fabel and Ronnie Kennedy are working with Jimmie Jones at Calumet Farm. Proud mothers of triplets are Patty Roach and Patty Neal, who coincidentally married twin brothers. Thanks to her 4-H experience, Sherry Oakes is a famous New York dress designer. Locally Elizabeth Rivers, Nancy Wells and Mildred Robinson lead their church choirs. Susan Kopp married a policeman and became the doting mother of three little "kopp"-ers.

Warren Carpenter, Genora Leavell, Ronnie Pegg, and Bob Manor organized a local woodworking union. John Fedor, after saving pennies on dates for years, is the world's first multi-billionaire. Carroll Cox and Kent Royse discovered a new Northwest Passage while fishing for lobsters in Labrador. Stanley Tibbs owns the gay sixties Peppermint Lounge where Barb Jacobs, Corrine Cooper and Susan Ellwanger demonstrate the fad of the sixties — The TWIST. Nearing their motel, they noticed neighbors Edith McLaughlin, Judy Knowland, and Sandy Fowler chatting over their fences.

At last in their room, Danny suggested watching a few television shows before going to bed. They turned the set on just in time to catch "What's My Line" and whom do you suppose they saw? None other than Elijah Bates, star basketball player for the Los Angeles Lakers and Trudy Dimond, pearl diver in the Coral Reefs.

The next show was "The Thriller" featuring Bob Krook who had taken Boris Karloff's place. To wind up the evening, they decided to tune in on Jim "Jack Paar" Lancaster's show. The first guest was Jerry Morlan who studied under Arthur Murray for years. He did his own act accompanied by Bill Rauth's orchestra including Kelly Hayes and Ray Tippen. Keith "Van" Moses appeared next, playing the same piece he played to win Moscow's coveted Czar Nicholas Award. The astronauts ended their first day back on earth as Jim's show signed off with his theme song "On Red Devils".

The Red Devils closed out another successful baseball season in 1961, winning eight and losing three games.

Gary Hale, stellar four year performer, made a clean sweep of all honors for the season by being selected on the All-Conference Team, batting in the most runs — 17 — and winning the batting trophy with a .400 average.

Charles Hogan and Ted Bryson were runners-up in batting with a .375 and .366, respectively.

Bob Akers, Devil Coach, who had spent thirty years in High School coaching, (twenty years on the Red Devil Coaching Staff) resigned from active coaching at the end of the season, but will continue with his teaching duties. During the year's final assembly program, a plaque was presented to Coach Akers by the baseball squad commemorating his thirty years as a coach.

Coach Akers' record with the Demon baseballers was 154 wins and 80 losses.

Junior Letter Winners: Osborne Gibson, Ronald Cain, and Student Manager, Bob Ezell.

The strength of a community is determined by many factors. Good schools preparing its students to face the future is one such factor. The fact that you are a student of Jeffersonville High School should make you better equipped to assert your leadership in the community and thereby make this a better place to live.

It is also our desire to contribute to the future of our community by continually striving to offer better banking facilities and thereby add to the strength of the community's economy. Good luck to all the students. We wish you nothing but the best!
